

Academic Integrity Violation Process for Students

Ira A. Fulton Schools of Engineering

Instructor notifies you about an alleged academic integrity violation

Instructor reports the violation to the Academic Integrity Office

Academic Integrity Office sends you a notice of alleged violation letter via email

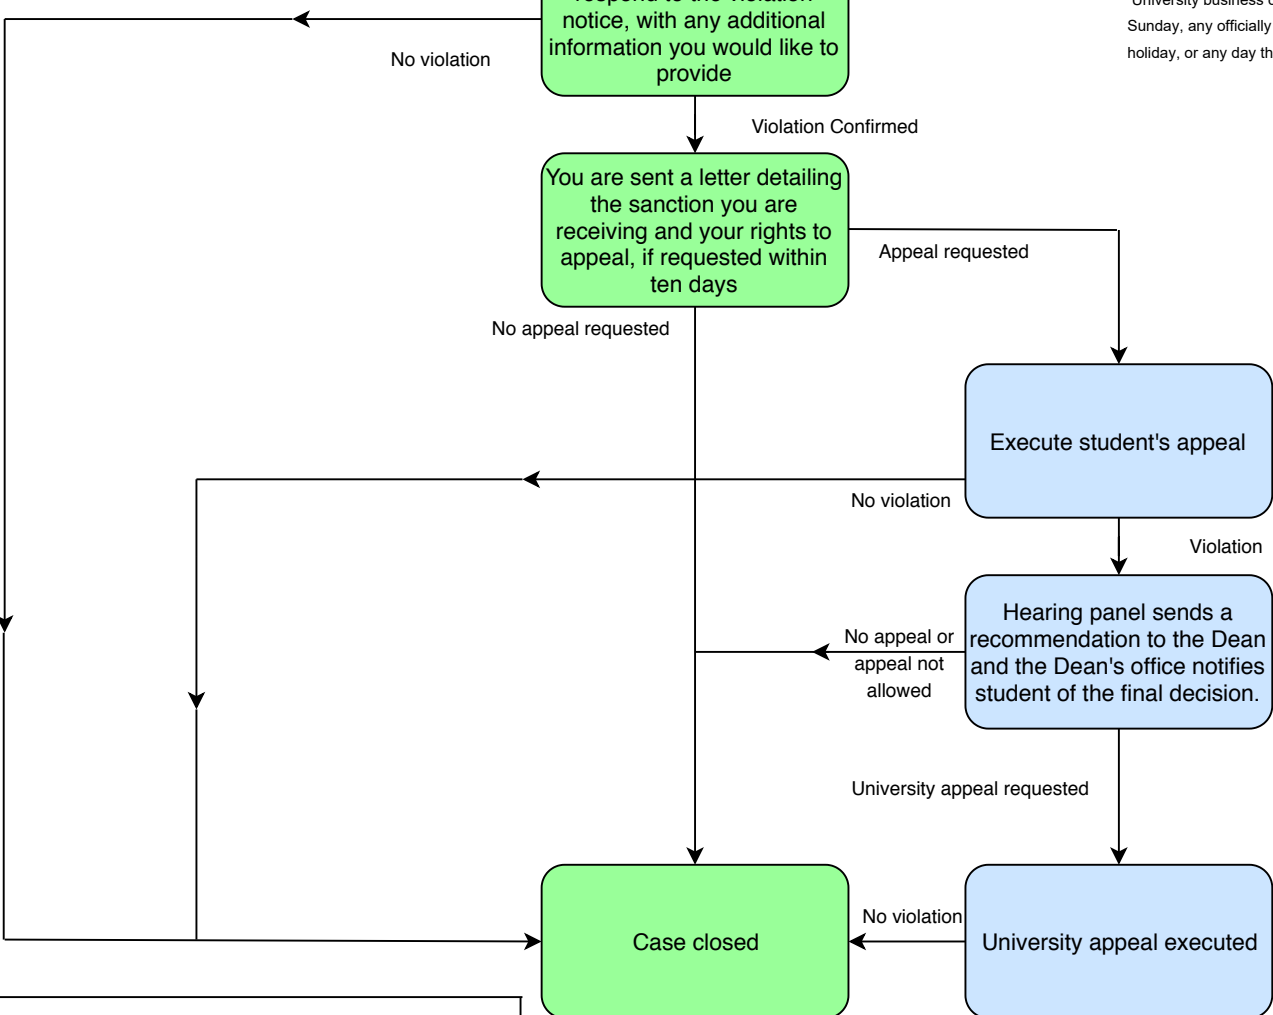

You have five days to respond to the violation notice, with any additional information you would like to provide

You are sent a letter detailing the sanction you are receiving and your rights to appeal, if requested within ten days

Note

Definition of day

University business day, not including Saturday, Sunday, any officially recognized university employee holiday, or any day the University is closed.

All first offense sanctions include mandatory Canvas Academic Integrity course.

Course not completed

Account Hold